

Sources, credits for notable people, places & stories

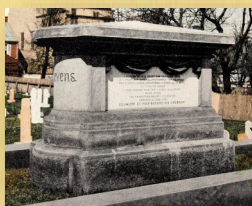

AFRICAN AMERICAN HERITAGE

MAP & GUIDE

Thaddeus Stevens
1792-1868

"Stevens in his physical prime," frontispiece, Stevens biography by Thomas F. Woodley, Telegraph Press, Harrisburg, PA, 1934. Originally, a pencil sketch that hung in the station of the Shiffler Fire Company, a Lancaster City private volunteer company established by Stevens in 1852.

Stevens' grave & monument, Shreiner-Concord Cemetery, Lancaster, PA. Post card, 1903. Courtesy Saint John's Episcopal Church, Lancaster, PA.

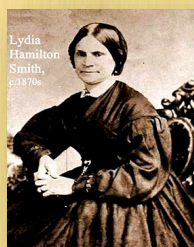

Thaddeus Stevens Home & Office, 45, South Queen Street, Federal era building, date unknown. Sketch from photograph, from Stevens biography by Thomas Woodley, 1935. This image used to restore façade, 2009, after many inappropriate alterations and decades of neglect.

Locomotive "Lancaster" and passenger car on Philadelphia & Columbia Railroad, circa 1835. Sketch from "The Pennsylvania Railroad, 1846-1896," by J. Elfreth Watkins, 1896, Courtesy, Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania.

Lydia Hamilton Smith
1815-1884

From collection of Lancaster-History.org. Donated by author Elsie Singmaster. Date and photographer unknown.

Village of Feagleyville, City of Lancaster, PA. From "Lancaster L-y--r-i-c-s," By David Bachman Landis, published by the author, 1914 at Pluck Art Printery, Lancaster, PA

Old Lancaster County Jail & Workhouse. Moody & Bridgens City of Lancaster Map, 1850. Courtesy, LancasterHistory.org.

Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Lancaster, PA. From the church website, accessed May, 2016

William Whipper
1804-1876

From "The Underground Railroad," 1872 by William Still, Philadelphia.

William G. Payne
(1847-1919)

From "The Pennsylvania Negro Business Directory," 1910.

Lancaster County Courthouse, Photograph by Randolph Harris, January 2016

Stevens' 'spy'
Edward H. Rauch

From History of Carbon County, Brenckman, 1913

Research, photography & design by Randolph Harris, consulting historian, Lancaster, PA May 2016