Two community notices for Calendar of Events in Lancaster County & South Central PA

Call for Tour Conductors, Storytellers. All ages and backgrounds welcome

Do you love local history? Have you ever wanted to be a tour conductor or storyteller and share your love of the heritage of our community? A new history training program that focuses on the experience of African Americans and civil rights heritage in Lancaster will begin Saturday, February 2, 2019 at the City of Lancaster Visitors Center, 38 Penn Square from 10 AM until noon. The training will continue each of the following Saturdays: February 9, 16 and 23. If you qualify as a tour conductor you can be paid for being involved. Interested? Contact Debbie Smith of the African American Historical Society of Southcentral Pennsylvania at aahsconductor@gmail.com or call 717-393-8553.

Black History Month 2019 Exhibit at City of Lancaster Visitors Center

During Black History Month, beginning Friday, February 1, 2019, the Visitors Center of the City of Lancaster will host the exhibit, The Road to Freedom Takes Many Paths - African American Heritage in Lancaster County. The exhibit on the second floor of the Visitor Center, 38 Penn Square, is free and open to the public, between 9 AM and 4 PM for the remainder of the month on Tuesdays, Fridays and Saturdays. The exhibit is a project of the African American Historical Society of South Central Pennsylvania and LancasterHistory.org, in collaboration with the City of Lancaster Office of Promotions.
